

J O R D A N

Sometimes you get discouraged because I am so small,
And because I leave my handprints all along the wall.

But everyday I'm growing,
and soon I'll be quite tall,
And all those little handprints will not be seen at all.

So here's a special handprint,
just so you can say,
This is how my fingers looked,
when I put them here today.
